

DESERT FIGURE WORKSHOP

OCTOBER 1 – 6, 2017

Join Kim Weston, grandson of Edward Weston, and Mark Comon for a creative photo retreat in the beautiful high desert. Capture the stunning big skies and the arid scenery of the desert and unleash your creativity with expressive figures. Are you timid about photographing models and people? Don't be! Our proven system will lead you to new levels of technical skills and artistic expression in accepting environment where every photographer will excel.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

The Desert Figure Workshop is an opportunity to make amazing photos, build your technical skills and enhance your artistic vision. Our Workshop team and superb models will inspire you to conceive, design, capture, edit and share fantastic communicative artistic nudes. The workshop's system of instruction, planning and evaluation will make you successful.

Our inspiring desert retreat will thrill you with color, shape and line. The mid-century designs of the motel offers a myriad of views and backgrounds which will make stunning pictures. Our days in the nature of Joshua Tree with jumbo rocks and desert vistas will offer unlimited possibilities. We might even get surprised with bonus locations!

The weeklong workshop offers every photographer plenty of time to shoot creatively, adjust and direct to make your vision a reality. Participants will work in teams to produce stunning photo stories using the location, models, camera techniques and natural light control. Our daily image review will reinforce the lessons learned today and inspire you to make better pictures tomorrow. Join us for a fantastic photo week!

“The Desert Figure Workshop is the best deal and best experience for a figure workshop on the planet!”

STUDENT COMMENTS:

“I learned so much from the workshop but probably the most important thing for me was leaving with a totally new (and unexpected) level of confidence in my work. Kim and Mark were very supportive and I really appreciate the kind words and encouragement. It really made a huge difference to me personally and professionally.” LP- Desert Figure Workshop 2016
